

5 ways smart scheduling saves you time

When you're asked to do more with less, it's critical to find better ways to optimize your scheduling practices. Ad Astra can help you boost efficiency and make the most of your time and processes while keeping everyone on the same page.

1 Broad transparency for improved collaboration across units, departments, and campuses

“ We've drastically reduced the time spent on paper processes to working out conflicts in less than a day. It's saved around 300 staff hours annually in academic scheduling.”

JASON MADDEN

ITS Senior Analyst, Black Hawk College

2 Improved space utilization through centralized processes and real-time monitoring capabilities

“ The ability to predict the curriculum-driven demand for a course is a game-changer that saves us 80 hours a year.”

KAREN ALEXANDER

Registrar, Central Virginia Community College

3 Enhanced communication through the reduction of lengthy email chains

“ The Optimizer is life changing! It adds value to my work life and saves an average of 50-75 hours a year.”

CHRISTIE ROBERTS

Associate Registrar, Texas A&M University Corpus Christi

4 Ability to predict student-driven demand for scheduling efficiency in a centralized space

“ When we went online, I went from 80 hours a month to 8 hours a month, hallelujah!”

SELENA ALBERT

Events Coordinator, University of Missouri-Kansas City

5 Elimination of duplicate work and generation of easy data pulls for enhanced reporting

“ We're all on the same page in terms of scheduling and this process saves me 80 hours per semester.”

SHIRLEY MCMANUS

Dean of Math, Science and Engineering, Fresno City College
